Newsflash

14 February 2018

Farewell to Kim Thomas

We would like to take this opportunity to say thank you and goodbye to our exceptional Administrator Kim Thomas, as she returns to work in the education sector. For nearly four years, Kim has been working behind the scenes to bring Newsflash to you. If you've attended one of our workshops, you will also have noticed her ability to ensure an event runs smoothly while making it look easy. She will definitely be missed.

Involvement Opportunity: Surgical Intervention

Apply by 14th March, central Bristol

Webinar: Participation, good practice and legal duties in the context of collaboration

22nd March, online

For: People working in communication and engagement roles in NHS England, Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCGs), Commissioning Support Units (CSUs), Sustainability and Transformation Partnerships (STPs) and NHS Trusts/Foundation Trusts, and commissioners.

What: NHS organisations are under a legal duty to involve patients and the public, and this webinar will outline some guidelines to help organisations work effectively in partnership with people and communities, and to comply with relevant legal duties when collaborating with one another.

few years

What: Researchers seek members of a new Patient Advisory Group, to discuss ideas on what research they should do on evaluating new types of surgery, how they should do this research and what they should do with the findings. There will be a one-off two-hour meeting, with opportunities for further involvement if interested.

Please feel free to pass this on to anyone you feel may be interested.

About PHWE:

People in Health West of England is a collaborative approach to involving patients and other members of the public to promote a strong public voice for better involvement, better research and better health.

Turning 70?

For: Anyone who has their 70th birthday in 2018 and has participated in health research

What: 2018 marks the 70th anniversary of the NHS. To mark the occasion, Bristol Health Partners is looking for someone who would be willing to share their story with the media.
